

Re-gifting

A one-minute play

By David L. Kimple

David Kimple
www.davidkimple.com

CAST OF CHARACTERS

CHARICE, elderly

GRACE, Charice's Caretaker

For Lauren Lovinger.

A nursing home.

CHARICE

I'm leaving you my money. All my monies.

GRACE

Why?

CHARICE

You deserve it. You take care of me. I want you to have it.
To use however you want.

GRACE

I'll give to someone else. Someone that needs it more.

CHARICE

I want you to use it on you.

GRACE

Giving is using it for myself. It's selfish to give sometimes. It feels good to give. You feel good giving to me, no?

CHARICE

Yes.

GRACE

See.

CHARICE

I do. Maybe I should just give it to them instead.

GRACE

Who?

CHARICE

Whoever you were going to give it to.

GRACE

You could do that.

CHARICE

Now what do I give you?

END OF PLAY.